Smart-UK have been teaching the science and practice auricular acupuncture for substance misuse and mental health for nearly twenty five years, and have taught thirteen thousand health care workers. We are the training providers of choice to the. NHS, HMPS, armed forces, community mental health, addiction services, family support organisations and charities .

Our book "Auricular Acupuncture and Addiction" is a world's first in scientific explanation in this field. Sue and Kim's - "no hocus pocus" approach in their practice and teaching provides a real understanding of the brain and it's magic! and how things get mis-interpreted! We have been constantly asked to make this particular day more available, So here it is!
